

2025 Monument Industry Show – Attendee Toolkit!

MBNA can't wait to see you in Cleveland! Help make this conference one of our best by promoting your attendance! We have compiled some resources below to make it as easy as possible. Use these resources to post to your social media accounts, send a message to colleagues encouraging them to come, or even add the conference logo to your email signature!

Conference Website:

The landing page for the 2025 Monument Industry Show is located here:

MonumentBuilders.org/2025-monument-show. We encourage you to add this link into any industry show communications that you send out. The link for attendee registration is here.

MBNA Social Media Accounts:

Be sure to tag us in all your social media conference posts, and if you aren't following MBNA, follow us on Facebook, Instagram, and LinkedIn. Make sure you join our Facebook member group and the WinMBNA group to keep up with all the other MBNA members!

Post often! Let others know how important MBNA's Show is and what they'll gain from attending. Encourage your peers, employees, suppliers, and other monument retailers to join us! They won't want to miss THE monument show of the year!

Social Media Posts:

MBNA has made some pre-made social media templates with captions that you can use to post to your pages! Whether you want something quick that you can download and post, or if you want to do some customization, use the graphics below! If you want to edit the graphics, click the template link, select edit template, make your changes, and use the share button in the top right corner to download your image!
